Tour starts from your hotel lobby at 8.30am, Beijing served as the capital for 5 dynasties over a period of 800 years. Each emperor was proclaimed to be a dragon sent from heaven. We begin our tour with a stop at Tiananmen Square, the largest public plaza in the world. Located in the heart of modern Beijing, Tiananmen Square was first built during the Ming Dynasty. Covering an area of 44 hectares, the enormous square is the main entrance to the Forbidden City.

From there we continue north through The Forbidden City. Over the central arched gateway is the famous portrait of Mao. This magnificent complex with its many palaces and halls is the largest imperial palace ever built in the world, featuring more than 800 buildings with over 9,000 rooms, resplendent golden-glazed roofs, red lacquered pillars and vermilion walls. Day 3: Thursday 13 May, Beijing - Great Wall Marathon Inspection and Acrobatic Show

Today your dream of walking the Great Wall will come true. Comfortable clothing and footwear are recommended for today. We will leave Beijing at approximately 6.30am and head northeast to "our section" of the enormous Great Wall at Huangyaguan. Very few tourists find their way up to this remote place, despite the rich range of possibilities here.

All runners must walk the 3.5 km of the wall that is part of the Great Wall Marathon course to familiarise themselves with the route. Non-runners are also welcome to partake in this walk, though good physical condition is required. A sandwich lunch will be served and after lunch we will return to Beijing where we expect to arrive at around 5 pm. On arrival we suggest you proceed to your room to freshen up and grab a bite to eat (at own expense) prior to the Acrobatic Show.

Meet in the Hotel lobby at approx. 6.15pm for transfer to the Acrobatic Theatre. Acrobatics is an interactive art form with no language barrier or cultural border. The history of acrobatics in China can be traced back to Neolithic times. It is believed that acrobatics grew out of the labour and self-defence skills that the people practiced and demonstrated during their leisure time. By 300 BC, such skills as walking on 3-meter high stilts and juggling 7 daggers at a time had been developed in China.

Breakfast & Lunch are included on this day.

Day 4: Friday 14 May, Beijing - Optional Tour and Carbo Load Asian Style Dinner

OPTIONAL TOUR – Temple of Heaven. Duration 6hrs. Additional Cost $76 per person

Tour departs from the hotel lobby at 8.30am. The beautiful Temple of Heaven was the place where the emperors of the Ming and Qing dynasties worshipped heaven and prayed for abundant harvests. The complex consists of the 125 feet (38 meter high) Hall of Prayer for Bounteous Harvests, the Imperial Vault of Heaven with a gilded cupola, the three-tier Circular Altar, Echo Wall and the Thrice-Echoing Stone. Occupying an area of 270 hectares makes this the largest temple and altar complex in China. We will stop at the Art Gallery to view the beautiful paintings of China and a chance to purchase some.

After lunch we have a shopping stop at the Hongqiao Markets, where you can buy a wide range of "fake" genuine clothing, shoes, handbags, electrical and souvenir shopping. Return to the hotel approximately 2.30pm.

CARBO LOAD ASIAN STYLE DINNER

A group dinner will be provided this evening at a local Chinese Restaurant to get you ready for tomorrow's big race. Note: Pasta will not be served, however there will be plenty of rice. Meet in hotel lobby at 5.30pm.

Breakfast & Dinner are included this day. Lunch only included if doing the optional tour.

Day 5: Saturday 15 May, Jixian - The Great Wall Marathon

Today is the big day. A breakfast box prepared by the hotel will be handed out by your guide, and we will leave Beijing at 3.30am to head for Huangyaguan for the 7:30 am start of the Great Wall Marathon and Half Marathon. The reason we start early is to avoid the daytime heat and humidity. Running in the early hours of the morning is much nicer, and will definitely reduce fatigue whilst running.

The Great Wall Marathon is an official international marathon timed by the BibTag system. All participants who complete the race within 8 hours will receive a medal. However, it should be emphasized once again that the main aim of this challenge is to have fun and finish the race. Times are of minor importance and there are no prizes to be won. Sandwich lunches are provided for everyone, and there will be some extra refreshments for the runners. Between 12:00 pm and 4:30 pm, shuttle buses will take runners back to their hotel.

Breakfast and lunch are included on this day.

Day 6: Sunday 16 May, Beijing – Optional Tour and Gala Dinner

OPTIONAL TOUR – Summer Palace, Hot Pot Lunch & Giant Panda. Duration: 7hrs. Additional Cost: $110 per person.

Tour includes:

- Visit to the Summer Palace
- Lunch at a Mongolian Hot Pot Restaurant
- Visit Giant Pandas at Beijing Zoo

At 8:00am we depart the Hotel and begin our day with a visit to the Summer Palace, one of the most extraordinary sights in Beijing. Once inside you will be amazed by its surroundings and the delicate architecture. Summer Palace was first built several hundred years back in Jin Dynasty but was since renovated in large scale several times. In 1860 it was plundered during the Second Opium War but in 1888 the notorious Empress Dowager Cixi had it rebuilt by using the money that was intended for the Navy and made it a very opulent summer retreat for the royal family.

Lunch will be served at a Mongolian Hot Pot Restaurant. Food here is delicious.

After lunch we head to the Panda House at the Beijing Zoo. The giant panda is universally loved, but this peaceful, bamboo-eating member of the bear family faces many threats. Its population is small and isolated as its traditional forest habitat in southwest China's mountainous areas becomes fragmented. The government has set up more than 30 reserves, but habitat destruction and poaching continue to pose a threat to pandas living outside them. There are 1596 pandas living in the wild and 234 in the zoos in China. We will return to the hotel at approximately 4.00pm

CELEBRATION DINNER & AFTER PARTY

All participants, runners and non-runners alike, will be picked up from the hotel at approx. 6.00pm and taken to the banquet dinner to celebrate your triumph on the Great Wall. Buses will return back to the hotel between 9.30pm and 10pm. For those who want to continue celebrating, one of Beijing's great nightclubs will be awaiting us with dance music and colourful cocktails until the break of dawn. Dress code for the evening: semi-formal.

Breakfast & dinner are included on this day. Lunch included if doing optional tour.
