First Light Marathon

ITINERARY

Day 1: 23 January 2025 - Arrival in Tairāwhiti Gisborne

All participants will arrive in Tairāwhiti Gisborne either by a domestic flight or by bus. Tairāwhiti Gisborne is about a 6–7-hour drive or a 1 hour flight from Auckland. Alternatively, guests might consider renting a car if you plan on doing a bigger tour around the island. If participants choose to fly, the local airport is Tairāwhiti Gisborne airport (GIS). You can also join the pre-tour starting in Auckland – contact Travelling Fit for details or refer to our separate flyer.

Around 6pm, all runners will gather for a short shakeout run guided by a local runner from Gisborne. The run will be a maximum of 5km at a relaxed pace, perfect for starting to get familiar with the beautiful surroundings. After the run, everyone gathers for complimentary beer and some finger food, where you can get to know your fellow marathon participants, meet the organisers, and raise a glass to the beginning of your Aotearoa New Zealand adventure.

Meals: Finger food after the shakeout run.

Day 2: 24 January 2025 – Traditional Pōwhiri

Early this morning, an optional excursion is on offer - "Stingray Encounter," in Tatapouri. On this excursion, you will have the opportunity to get up close and personal with stingrays and other reef life on a reef ecology tour. You will return in time for other scheduled activities.

All participants will get together in the late morning for a traditional Māori welcome ceremony, known as a pōwhiri. A pōwhiri is a special ritual of encounter and the perfect way for you to experience Māori traditions. It usually takes place at the Māori meeting grounds, called a marae. The ceremony involves singing, dancing, speeches. After the ceremony, lunch at the marae will be served.

The rest of the afternoon is yours to soak in the cultural attractions of the city, hit the beaches, or stretch your muscles on a hike.

In the evening all participants will meet to enjoy a pasta dinner.

Meals: Lunch at the Powhiri & pasta dinner.

Day 3: 25 January 2025 – Race Day

This morning you will make your way to the start line, just a short walk away. As the first light of day crests the horizon, you'll set off with music and excitement drumming through your body. Both the marathon and half-marathon begin at 5.40am and will end at 1.40pm, whilst the 6km event will start at 7.10am.

In the evening you have the opportunity to catch up with other runners and supporters at The Wharf Bar & Grill and share your experience of today's run while tasting an ice-cold beer. The first beer is complimentary. The Wharf is in a beautiful location with views of Gisborne Inner Harbour.

Later in the evening, there is an optional excursion, "Gisborne Astro Tours," where you will get to admire the celestial wonders of the Southern Hemisphere. An accomplished astronomer will be your guide to the starry constellations above.

Meals: Light lunch at the finish line.

Day 4 – 26 January 2025 – Optional Excursions and Celebration Dinner

Today, you will have the day free to explore Gisborne at your own pace, or you might opt to join one of the exciting excursions.

There will be two optional excursions today. The first option is a walking tour of Tolaga Bay and Cooks Cove. Cooks Cove is named after Captain James Cook, who stopped here in 1769 during his circumnavigation of New Zealand.

The second option is, "Learn to Surf". Whether you're a beginner or you just need to refresh your skills, the skilled instructors will have you riding the waves in no time.

In the late afternoon all participants will be driven out to a local winery for the Celebration Dinner. Everyone gets together to celebrate yesterday's achievements with a festive dinner.

Meals: Celebration Dinner.

Day 5 – 27 January 2025 - Farewell Gisborne or hello Extension Tour

Sadly, it is time to say goodbye to Tairāwhiti Gisborne. After check-out, you'll bid farewell to Aotearoa New Zealand. Alternatively, if you're not quite ready to say goodbye, you can join an exciting 6-day extension! Contact Travelling Fit for details or refer to our separate flyer.

Meals: Not included this day.
