Day 1: Wednesday 13 May, Beijing - Welcome to China

Welcome to amazing China and the city of Beijing, the capital of the People's Republic of China. You arrive in a modern and bustling airport that reflects the energy of contemporary China. The Great Wall Marathon (GWM) staff will receive you at the airport and transfer you to your hotel. The rest of the day is at your own leisure.

No meals are included on this day.

Day 2: Thursday 14 May, Beijing - Great Wall Marathon Inspection

Today your dream of walking the Great Wall will come true. Comfortable clothing and footwear are recommended for today. We will leave Beijing at approximately 6.30 am and head northeast to "our section" of the enormous Great Wall at Huangyaguan. Very few tourists find their way up to this remote place, despite the rich range of possibilities here.

All runners must walk the 3.5 km of the wall that is part of the Great Wall Marathon course to familiarise themselves with the route. Supporters are also welcome to partake in this walk, though good physical condition is required.

A sandwich lunch will be served and after lunch we will return to Beijing where we expect to arrive at around 5.00 pm. The evening is at your leisure.

Breakfast & Lunch are included on this day.

Day 3: Friday 15 May, Beijing – Optional Tour and Carbo Load Asian Style Dinner

OPTIONAL TOUR – Temple of Heaven including lunch.

Duration: Approximately. 6.5 hours.

Additional Cost $120 per person

Tour includes:

- Stop at Taoranting Park to watch senior citizens sing, dance, exercise, and enjoy tai chi.
- Visit to the Temple of Heaven
- Lunch at a restaurant for local cuisine

Tour departs from the hotel lobby at 8.30am where we begin our day with a visit to the Taoranting Park and be inspired by the Chinese elders doing their daily fitness regime in the park, from singing and dancing to doing Tai chi. Some even travel afar to join their friends every morning. From their happy faces, one could tell that it's all worth it.

The next visit is the beautiful Temple of Heaven, the place where the emperors of the Ming and Qing dynasties worshipped heaven and prayed for abundant harvests. The complex consists of the 125 feet (38 meter high) Hall of Prayer for Bounteous Harvests, the Imperial Vault of Heaven with a gilded cupola, the three-tier Circular Altar, Echo Wall and the Thrice-Echoing Stone. Occupying an area of 270 hectares makes this the largest temple and altar complex in China.

Lunch is included at a local restaurant.

We will return to the hotel at approximately 3.00pm.

CARBO LOAD ASIAN STYLE DINNER

A group dinner will be served this evening to get you ready for tomorrow's big race.

Note: Pasta will not be served, however there will be plenty of rice and possibly noodles.

Meet in hotel lobby at 5.30pm.

Breakfast & Dinner are included this day. Lunch only included if doing the optional tour.

Day 4: Saturday 16 May – Race Day! The Great Wall Marathon

Today is the big day. A breakfast box prepared by the hotel will be handed out by your guide, and we will leave Beijing at 3.30am to head for Huangyaguan for the 7:30 am start of the Great Wall Marathon and Half Marathon. The reason we start early is to avoid the daytime heat and humidity. Running in the early hours of the morning is much nicer and will definitely reduce fatigue whilst running.

The Great Wall Marathon is an official international marathon timed by the BibTag system. All participants who complete the race within 8 hours will receive a medal. However, it should be emphasized once again that the main aim of this challenge is to have fun and finish the race. Times are of minor importance and there are no prizes to be won. Sandwich lunches are provided for everyone, and there will be some extra refreshments for the runners. Between 12:00 pm and 4:30 pm, shuttle buses will take runners back to their hotel.

Breakfast box and lunch are included on this day.

Day 5: Sunday 17 May, Beijing – Optional Tour and Gala Dinner

OPTIONAL TOUR – City of People Tour: Beijing Zoo (Giant Panda), Hutong Tour with Rickshaw ride, Hot Pot lunch.

Duration: Approximately 7.5hrs.

Additional Cost: $175 per person

Tour includes:

- Visit Giant Pandas at Beijing Zoo
- Hutong tour on a rickshaw
- Lunch at a Mongolian Hot Pot Restaurant

At 8:00am we depart the Hotel and begin our day with a visit to the Panda House at the Beijing Zoo. The giant panda is universally loved, but this peaceful, bamboo-eating member of the bear family faces many threats. Its population is small and isolated as its traditional forest habitat in southwest China's mountainous areas becomes fragmented. The government has set up more than 30 reserves, but habitat destruction and poaching continue to pose a threat to pandas living outside them. There are 1596 pandas living in the wild and 234 in the zoos in China.

Next, we head to the Hutong area for a rickshaw where we will weave our way around charming streets and ancient alleys (hutongs) packed with Chinese history and culture.

We will return to the hotel at approximately 3.30 pm.

Lunch will be served at a Mongolian Hot Pot Restaurant. Food here is delicious.

CELEBRATION DINNER & AFTER PARTY

All participants, runners and non-runners alike, will be picked up from the hotel at approx. 5.30pm and taken to the banquet dinner to celebrate your triumph on the Great Wall. Buses will return back to the hotel between 9.30 pm and 10.30 pm. For those who want to continue celebrating, one of Beijing's great nightclubs will be awaiting us with dance music and colourful cocktails until the break of dawn. Dress code for the evening: semi-formal.

Breakfast & dinner are included on this day. Lunch only included if doing the optional tour

Day 6: Monday 18 May, Beijing – Departure or Extension Tour

Depending on your departure time, you can spend the day shopping or take a final visit to many of the sights in Beijing. Note that you will need to check out of your hotel before 12pm.

You may wish to extend your stay in China by purchasing an extension tour to Xi'an (land of the Terracotta Army) on the bullet train, or venture to the Avatar Mountains where you will see otherworldly rock formations, caves, and mountains - including the mountains that inspired the movie Avatar! Please feel free to contact Travelling Fit for full details.

Breakfast included on this day.
