

Iceland Volcano Marathon Packages

03 July 2027

Run through one of Earth's geological hot spots, on the rim of two volcanic craters and over black lava rock. This thrilling adventure run takes place in Mývatn, in northern Iceland, where the North Volcanic Zone splits the American and Eurasian continental plates. Still an active volcanic area, the dramatic landscape is replete with ancient lava and steaming geysers.

The first night will be spent in Reykjavík and the other four nights in Mývatn, giving you ample opportunity to explore this other-worldly island. You get the chance to visit Europe's largest waterfall, embark on a whale safari, hike through the castle-like lava formations of Dimmuborgir, and relax in a geothermally heated lagoon.

30 June to 05 July 2027

Day 1 – 30 June 2027: Welcome to Iceland

Arrival at Keflavík International Airport (KEF) in Reykjavík. There is no set arrival time, so you can book the flight that is most suitable for you. Note that transfer from Keflavík Airport to Reykjavík is roughly a 45 minutes' drive and it is not included in the package. There is an Airport Direct shuttle service which is easy and convenient that will drop off at your hotel.

Participants arriving in the morning or early afternoon have the opportunity to book a tour to the Golden Circle with Thingvellir, Geysir and Gullfoss. Please see Optional Excursions flyer for more details. This must be booked in advance.

With almost 24 hours of daylight during the summer months, Reykjavík is often described as the city that never sleeps... so take this opportunity to discover the world's northernmost capital city at your own speed! A pre-night in Reykjavík is also offered if you would like to explore the capital. Contact Travelling Fit for details.

Meals: Not included

Day 2 – 01 July 2027: Iceland's Scenic West Coast & Akureyri

After an early breakfast, you will board the bus and begin a scenic drive up along the west coast of Iceland whilst the guide talks about Iceland. In the afternoon, you reach Akureyri, known as "The Capital of the North," which lies just 100 km (62 miles) away from the Arctic Circle. From here you will continue to Mývatn, where you will get settled into your hotel.

Meals: Breakfast

Day 3 – 02 July 2027: Mývatn Route Highlights & Race Briefing

On today's tour you will visit some of the places that are on the marathon route:

Dimmuborgir (Dark Castles), a spectacular maze of strange lava structures covered with surprisingly lush vegetation. The area is composed of various volcanic caves and rock formations.

Hverfjall – a tephra cone which erupted 2500 years ago in the southern part of the Krafla fissure swarm. The crater is approximately 1 km in diameter.

Hverir solfataras (boiling sulphur mud pits) at Námaskarð, these being some of the most spectacular in the country. Stroll around the bubbling gray puddles and the ethereal steam loudly escaping from the conical fumaroles. If you've never smelled a rotten egg this is a good change to fill this gap! But please - mind your steps!

During the tour you will stop for the race briefing delivered by the race officials. Here you will receive your race pack, meet the other runners, and be able to ask questions to the official team.

In the evening, a pasta dinner prepared at the hotel awaits you for carb loading, ready for the Race Day tomorrow!

Meals: Breakfast, lunch and pasta dinner.

Iceland Volcano Marathon Detailed Itinerary

30 June to 05 July 2027

Day 4 – 03 July 2027: Race Day

Today is the big day - the Iceland Volcano Marathon, Half Marathon and Quarter Marathon is on!

Runners will have the rare opportunity to run the dirt and gravel roads around the majestic Hverfjall crater. While the route will be demanding, the weather is likely to pose the biggest challenge.

Although this event is during the Icelandic summer, it's unlikely temperatures will rise above 15 degrees Celsius (59 degrees Fahrenheit) and rain is not uncommon in this country. However, the scenery is equally dramatic in both sun and rain!

At the finish line, a pizza lunch will be served to participants. Shuttle buses will then take all participants back to their hotels.

In the evening you have the chance to join the optional excursion (at additional cost) to Earth Lagoon Nature Baths in Mývatn. The perfect way to give your muscles a treat and take a soak in the restorative natural waters.

Meals: Breakfast and pizza lunch included.

Day 5 – 04 July 2027: Relaxation, Optional Excursions & Celebration Dinner

There are 3 optional excursions to choose from this day (for an additional cost):

Majestic Waterfalls where you will witness magnificent waterfalls In a canyon known as Jökulsárgljúfur;

Mývatn Beer Brewery Visit – Learn the story behind the family-owned brewery Mývatn Öl and enjoy a guided tasting of four unique Icelandic craft beers!

Lofthellier Ice Cave is a lava tunnel filled with permafrost ice. The cave boasts incredible ice formations, some of which are hundreds of years old.

Please refer to the Optional Excursion flyer for full details and pricing or contact Travelling Fit for details.

If you prefer to have a more leisurely day, you can take in the stunning nature surrounding of Mývatn at your own pace.

In the evening everyone gathers together (runners, supporters and organisers) to celebrate your achievements with a festive dinner.

Meals: Breakfast and Celebration Dinner.

Day 6 – 05 July 2027: Farewell Iceland or Hello Extension

After an early breakfast, you will board shuttle buses that will drive back south to Reykjavík City and Keflavik International Airport (KEF).

Participants flying out of Iceland this afternoon/evening will depart from Mývatn at 06:00am in the morning and drive straight to Keflavik Airport. Expected arrival at Keflavik Airport is 2:30pm. Knowing this, it is not advisable to book your flight out of Iceland earlier than 4:30pm on this day. In fact, we do recommend you stay in Reykjavik at least another day to enjoy the beautiful city or experience the Natural Geothermals nearby.

Participants who have a post-night in Reykjavik will depart from Mývatn at 08:30am and drive to Reykjavik city for your overnight stay. Post nights in Reykjavik can be booked directly with Travelling Fit. Please contact us for details.

Meals: Breakfast.
